Candidate Slates Senior Citizens' Voting Campaign

A Senior Citizens registration and registrar recruitment campaign has been announced by Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson's campaign headquarters. Emphasis will be placed on obtaining more Senior Citizens as registrars and then placing them in areas that have a heavy concentration of the elderly, many of whom have recently moved and must re-register.

Mrs. Frederick Abraham, Los Angeles County Co-ordinator of Registration for Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson, reports that the drive was planned in response to the many requests received from Senior Citizens who would like to become registrars. "Becoming a deputy registrar offers the older citizen a real opportunity to perform a civic duty while earning extra money. 20 cents is earned for each person registered," Mrs. Abraham pointed out.

"The Anderson Headquarters, as a public service, will make every effort to simplify the mechanics for any person interested," Mrs. Abraham said.

Applicants must be registered voters in Los Angeles county and will be required to take one two-hour class in instruction. "There is a class scheduled in many local communities," Mrs. Abraham stated, "but they fill up quickly." Mrs. Abraham urged anyone interested to phone Lt. Gov. Anderson's headquarters at WE 7-2782 for further information.
